What
You Need to Do

Loan Number: 182639401

Dear GREGORY P LAPORTA:

Our records indicate that you have not made your last three regularly scheduled payments. Foreclosure activities typically begin after four missed payments, so it is important that you take action on this issue quickly, as ignoring the situation and continuing to let your payments become past due will put you at risk of losing your home to foreclosure.

We strongly encourage you to apply for assistance to avoid foreclosure. Bank of America offers different programs to help keep you in your home including the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP), available to qualifying borrowers. If you must leave your home, we also have other options to help you avoid foreclosure such as a short sale or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure.

Please act quickly before your options become limited. Send us your Borrower Response Package with the requested financial information in the enclosed Homeowner Checklist by November 4, 2012. We have included a pre-paid envelope for your convenience. If you do not respond before your next payment due date and you also fail to make your next payment, your mortgage could be referred to foreclosure.

It is important that you return your Borrower Response Package as soon as possible to take advantage of the greatest number of foreclosure alternatives that may be available to you.

We want to help you avoid foreclosure, so please consider this opportunity.

Kikisha Holmes
Home Loan Team
Bank of America, N.A.

P.S. We encourage you to call us if you are not interested in pursuing any of these foreclosure alternatives. We may be able to limit future calls to collect on your account.

In order to expedite your review for loan assistance, Bank of America, N.A. is working with a third party company, Walled Lake Credit Bureau, LLC. Federal law requires that we communicate to you that Bank of America, N.A. is a debt collector and also that Walled Lake Credit Bureau, LLC is a licensed debt collector. Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Why did I receive this package?

You received this package because we have not received one or more of your monthly mortgage payments or because you have indicated that you have a hardship that may prevent you from making one or more of your monthly payments in the future. We want to ensure you are aware of the options that may be available to help you avoid foreclosure. Please send us the requested documents (i.e., your Borrower Response Package) so that we can work with you to identify options that may be available to you to resolve any temporary or long-term financial challenges you face in making your mortgage payments.

Q. Where can I find more information on avoiding foreclosure?

Please see the Information on Avoiding Foreclosure attachment in this package for more information, or you can contact Bank of America, N.A. at 1.800.669.6650. Additional foreclosure avoidance information is provided by Bank of America, N.A. at bankofamerica.com/homeloanhelp or Fannie Mae at KnowYourOptions.com.

Q. Will I be evaluated for the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP) when I submit my completed documentation with my Borrower Response Package?

Yes, as appropriate. If you are not eligible for a refinance, reinstatement, repayment or forbearance plan based on the information you provide, we will evaluate you for participation in the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP). If you are not eligible for HAMP, we will evaluate you for all remaining foreclosure alternatives.

Q. Will it cost money to get help?

You should never pay a fee to obtain assistance or information about foreclosure avoidance options. However, foreclosure avoidance has become a means for scam artists to target borrowers. Be cautious of companies or individuals offering to help you for a fee, and never send a mortgage payment to any company other than Bank of America, N.A. or one designated to receive your payments under a state assistance program.

Q. What happens once I have sent the Borrower Response Package to you?

Within approximately three days of receipt of your Borrower Response Package, we will mail you an acknowledgement confirming the receipt of your initial documentation. At that time, we will also begin our review to determine whether or not we have received all of the required documentation to complete our evaluation. This documentation review takes approximately five days. Following our review of your package, we will send a letter that either confirms we have all documentation to continue the evaluation or that identifies missing documents that you need to provide. When we have confirmed receipt of all documents to complete your Borrower Response Package (and if the package was received within the timeframe requested), we will continue the evaluation process, which takes approximately 30 days.

Following our evaluation, we will let you know in writing which foreclosure alternatives, if any, are available to you and will inform you of your next steps to accept our offer. However, if your loan has been scheduled for a foreclosure sale and you submit your complete Borrower Response Package less than 37 days prior to the scheduled foreclosure sale date, we will work to process your request promptly, but you may not receive a notice of incompleteness or a decision on your request prior to foreclosure sale. It is important that you submit your Borrower Response Package as soon as possible.

Q. Will the foreclosure process begin if I do not respond to this letter?

Yes. Unless your loan is current or paid off, it is subject to foreclosure activity. If you have missed multiple monthly payments or there is reason to believe the property is vacant or abandoned, we may refer your mortgage to foreclosure regardless of whether you are being considered for a modification or other types of foreclosure alternatives.

Q. What happens if I have waited too long and my property has been referred to an attorney for foreclosure or what if my property is scheduled for a foreclosure sale in the future?

If you submit a complete Borrower Response Package less than 37 calendar days before a scheduled foreclosure sale, we will attempt to review your loan for a foreclosure alternative, but there is no guarantee we can stop the foreclosure sale. Even if we are able to approve your loan for a foreclosure alternative prior to a sale, a court with jurisdiction over the foreclosure proceeding (if any) or public official charged with carrying out the sale may not halt the scheduled sale. Also, if we receive your package less than 15 days before a scheduled foreclosure sale date, we are not obligated to review your package or request a postponement of the sale.

Q. Will my property be sold at a foreclosure sale if I accept a foreclosure alternative?

No, as long as you comply with all requirements of the foreclosure alternative.

Q. Will my credit score be affected by my late payments or being in default?

If your loan is 30 days or more past due, your credit score may be affected. The delinquency status of your loan will be reported to credit reporting agencies as well as your entry into a Repayment Plan, Forbearance Plan, or loan modification Trial Period Plan in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Q. Will my credit score be affected if I accept a foreclosure avoidance option?

While the affect on your credit will depend on your individual credit history, credit scoring companies generally would consider entering into a plan with reduced payments as increasing your credit risk. As a result, entering into a plan with reduced payments may adversely affect your credit score, particularly if you are current on your mortgage or otherwise have a good credit score.

Q. What if I am unemployed?

If you are currently unemployed, you may be eligible for a temporary suspension of your monthly mortgage payments. Please call us to discuss available options.

Q. Is foreclosure avoidance counseling available?

Yes, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) approved counselors are available to provide you with the information and assistance you may need to avoid foreclosure. You can use the search tool at <http://www.hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/fc/> to find a counselor near you.

Q. How will a modification of my loan affect the mortgage insurance on my loan?

Mortgage Insurance (MI) is typically required on loans where the original loan amount is greater than 80% of the original value of the property. MI coverage protects lenders and investors against a financial loss when borrowers default.

If you did not already have MI on your loan prior to the modification, you will not be required to obtain it as a result of the modification. If you currently have MI, and the modified principal balance changes as a result of the modification, your MI premiums may change as well. Furthermore, the date on which you may request cancellation of the MI may change. For loans on single family primary residences, federal law allows you to request that MI be canceled on either:

- The date the principal balance on your loan is scheduled to reach 80% of the original value of the property; or
- The date the principal balance is reduced to 80% of the original value of the property based on actual payments.

State law or investor guidelines may also allow for the cancellation of MI at different times or if your loan is secured by a 2- to 4-unit property. For more information about mortgage insurance please call us at 1.800.669.6650.

Q. What happens if I have a Borrowers Protection Plan on my loan?

If you qualify for a modification and you have a Borrowers Protection Plan with your mortgage, please contact us at 1.866.317.5116 to discuss whether you may be eligible for benefits, how your Plan may be impacted by a mortgage modification, and what additional options you may have.

Q. What happens if I have other optional products or credit insurance?

If you purchased an optional product after your loan closed, such as accidental death insurance or Privacy Assist, where you agreed to have the cost for the optional product added to your mortgage payment, please contact us at 1.800.641.5298 to discuss the choices you may have.

If you have credit insurance, please contact us at 1.800.288.7647 to discuss your credit insurance plan.

Q. What if I am in bankruptcy proceedings?

If you are represented by an attorney, we must speak with your attorney or have your attorney's permission to speak with you about loan assistance programs, so he or she must fax a letter to that effect (on the firm's letterhead) to us at 1.866.261.6472 before we discuss any details directly with you.

In addition, please consult with your attorney about how these programs could affect your mortgage and your bankruptcy case. Because you are in bankruptcy, any final modification of your mortgage may require bankruptcy court approval. If you are in Chapter 13 bankruptcy, you may also be required to amend your bankruptcy plan. Your bankruptcy attorney can assist you with that process.

Q. Are there additional resources where I can find information about the Home Affordable Modification Program?

Call the Homeowner's HOPE™ Hotline at 1.888.995.HOPE (4673). This Hotline can help with questions about the program and offers access to free HUD-certified counseling services in English and Spanish.

Information on Avoiding Foreclosure

(Do not return this sheet with your Borrower Response Package)

Mortgage Programs Are Available to Help

There are a variety of programs available to help you resolve your delinquency and keep your home. You may be eligible to refinance or modify your mortgage to make your payments and terms more manageable, for instance, lowering your monthly payment to make it more affordable. Or, if you have missed a few payments, you may qualify for a temporary (or permanent) solution to help you get your finances back on track. Depending on your circumstances, staying in your home may not be possible. However, a short sale or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure may be a better choice than foreclosure — see the table below for more information:

OPTION	OVERVIEW	BENEFIT
Refinance	Receive a new loan with lower interest rate or other favorable terms	Makes your payment or terms more affordable
Reinstatement	Pay the total amount you owe, in a lump sum payment and by a specific date. This may follow a forbearance plan as described below	Allows you to avoid foreclosure by bringing your mortgage current if you can show you have funds that will become available at a specific date in the future
Repayment Plan	Pay back your past-due payments together with your regular payments over an extended period of time	Allows you time to catch up on late payments without having to come up with a lump sum
Forbearance Plan	Make reduced mortgage payments or no mortgage payments for a specific period of time	Have time to improve your financial situation and get back on your feet
Modification	Receive modified terms of your mortgage to make it more affordable or manageable after successfully making the reduced payment during a "trial period" (i.e., completing a three [or four] month trial period plan)	Permanently modifies your mortgage so that your payments or terms are more manageable as a permanent solution to a long-term or permanent hardship
Short Sale	Sell your home and pay off a portion of your mortgage balance when you owe more on the home than it is worth	Allows you to transition out of your home without going through foreclosure. In some cases relocation assistance may be available
Deed-in-Lieu of Foreclosure	Transfer the ownership of your property to us	Allows you to transition out of your home without going through foreclosure. In some cases relocation assistance may be available. This is useful when there are no other liens on your property

8. If I am eligible for a trial period plan, repayment plan, or forbearance plan, and I accept and agree to all terms of such plan, I also agree that the terms of this Acknowledgment and Agreement are incorporated into such plan by reference as if set forth in such plan in full. My first timely payment following my Servicer's determination and notification of my eligibility or prequalification for a trial period plan, repayment plan, or forbearance plan (when applicable) will serve as acceptance of the terms set forth in the notice sent to me that sets forth the terms and conditions of the trial period plan, repayment plan, or forbearance plan.
9. I agree that when the Servicer accepts and posts a payment during the term of any repayment plan, trial period plan, or forbearance plan it will be without prejudice to, and will not be deemed a waiver of, the acceleration of my loan or foreclosure action and related activities and shall not constitute a cure of my default under my loan unless such payments are sufficient to completely cure my entire default under my loan.
10. I agree that any prior waiver as to my payment of escrow items to the Servicer in connection with my loan has been revoked.
11. If I qualify for and enter into a repayment plan, forbearance plan, and trial period plan, I agree to the establishment of an escrow account and the payment of escrow items if an escrow account never existed on my loan.
12. I understand that the Servicer will collect and record personal information that I submit in this Borrower Response Package and during the evaluation process, including, but not limited to, my name, address, telephone number, social security number, credit score, income, payment history, and information about my account balances and activity. I understand and consent to the Servicer's disclosure of my personal information and the terms of any relief or foreclosure alternative that I receive to any investor, insurer, guarantor, or servicer that owns, insures, guarantees, or services my first lien or subordinate lien (if applicable) mortgage loan(s) or to any HUD-certified housing counselor.
13. If I am eligible for foreclosure prevention relief under the federal Making Home Affordable Program, I understand and consent to the disclosure of my personal information and the terms of any Making Home Affordable Agreement by the Servicer to (a) the U.S. Department of the Treasury, (b) Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac in connection with their responsibilities under the Homeowner Affordability and Stability Plan, and (c) companies that perform support services in conjunction with Making Home Affordable.
