Dear Mr. LaPorta:

Thank you for sending us a courtesy copy of your letter.

We welcome hearing from you because we keep a database of information about the complaints and inquiries we receive. This database allows us to track whether a troubling situation may be developing about a particular issue, company, broker, stock, or other securities product. The information you have provided will be reflected in our database.

If your letter raises issues that others at the SEC should see, we will pass it along to them.

We will not do anything more with your letter unless you contact us again. I hope you receive the answers you are seeking.

Once again, thank you for sending us a copy of your letter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Victoria Wagner", written over the typed name and title.
